

Austin Mustard Seed Community Group Covenant

A covenant is a relational agreement between people before God.

When and where does your group meet?

Who is the Group Guide and Co-Guide?

Community Group Functions

Functions are the basic tasks and activities which make up the “calendar” of the Community Group. Read through the traits of all Community Groups. As a group, describe when and how your group plan to experience these together.

Up:

In:

Out:

Community Group Traits

Traits are values which are common to all groups at Austin Mustard Seed. As a group, describe what these mean to you, and how you want to experience them together.

1. Growing in the Way of Jesus
2. Commitment to the Group
3. Space for Vulnerability
4. Joining God's Mission
5. Dialogical
6. Prayer
7. Hospitality

Weekly Schedule

Describe a regular weekly meeting. Include a schedule of what you want to do and how long it will last.

Unique Group Attributes

Is there anything else that is important for your group to share together? Discuss and write them down.

Covenant Agreement

Before God and each other, we commit to working together to live out the ideals stated in this document. We commit to doing so with purpose, grace and prayer.

May God give us the grace to grow in community together!

Name _____

Date _____

Name _____

Date _____

Name _____

Date _____

Name _____

Date _____

Name _____

Date _____

Name _____

Date _____

Name _____

Date _____

Name _____

Date _____

Name _____

Date _____

Name _____

Date _____